ABOUT THE MEET

Nuclear power is a vital component of India's energy mix, offering strong potential for long-term energy security.

The SHANTI Act, 2025 enables participation from both public and private industry, marking a transformative phase in the country's nuclear landscape.

As the sector evolves, it is essential for new entrants to appreciate the nuances of nuclear safety, including the critical role of leadership, management, and safety culture during the entire lifetime of Nuclear Power Plants & related facilities and all operational states, areas fundamentally distinct from conventional industries.

This is mainly driven by strong leadership commitment, management for safety, quality assurance and a deeply embedded safety culture, ensuring safety and sustained public trust.

OBJECTIVE OF THE EVENT
